SAKE

"O' what an ugly sight the man who thinks he's wise and never drinks sake!"

Ōtomo no Tabito (665 – 731), Japanese poet

What is Sake?

While often referred to as “rice wine”, sake is a fermented product, more similar to beer than wine. Sake is the product of highly refined rice, the most pure water possible and Koji-kin – brewer’s mold spores, of which the exact strains used are often highly prized secrets. The art of crafting premium sake is a matter of timing and precision on the part of the brewer coupled with the finest ingredients possible.

Sake - especially higher quality sakes, should be enjoyed chilled. Those after warm sake should ideally look to our house sake or those labelled “Junmai”.

Understanding Sake Classifications

There are many things that can determine the quality of sake – with one of the most important being the amount the rice used is polished. Polishing the rice removes the proteins, fats and other unwanted contaminants contained in the outer layers of the grain. By milling these unwanted elements from the grain before fermentation – a cleaner more refined product will be achieved.

Entry level sake (those labelled Junmai and Honjozo) will have a minimum polish ratio of about 70% (meaning the rice grain will have about 30% of its original volume polished away), with premium sakes (labelled Junmai Daiginjo and Daiginjo) will have a minimum polish ratio of 50%. The remaining classifications of Junmai Ginjo and Ginjo will generally fall between these levels at a polish ration of at least 60%.

Light and refined

Zenkuro (All Black) Queenstown “Original”	375ml	$37.00
Junmaishu Sake	750ml	$72.00

For those who have not tried sake before we suggest to try this smooth, light, easy drinking style. Zenkuro Original is a great alternative to either white or red wine with your meal it is a great match with most dishes on our menu.

Yamada-Nishiki Tokubetsu Junmai	300ml	$ 26.50
--	-------	-----------------

Natural full-bodied pure rice wine. Refreshing with a dry crisp aftertaste.

Light and refined

Ozeki Osakaya Chobei Daiginjo 300ml $ 42.00

Rich and fruity aromas and a graceful refined flavour permeate this dry sake. A great choice for those looking for a sake of great distinction and elegance.

Gekkeikan Yamada-Nishiki Special Junmai 300ml $29.50

A light and clean flavoured sake with a fresh and pronounced nose and anise on the tongue.

Off-Dry and full flavoured

Ozeki Kara Tamba Honjozo 300ml $ 23.50

A light rich taste with pronounced Koji influences. This offering has a clear, clean flavour that is dry and crisp.

Zenkuro (All Black) Queenstown Wakatipu 375ml $41.00

"Sleeping Giant" Junmaishu Sake 750ml $79.00

The fermented mash is transferred to bags, then gently pressed in a traditional pressing tank. Strong, flavoursome and full bodied, just like Matau, the legendary sleeping giant of Lake Wakatipu. Matches a wide range of our dishes. Enjoy chilled or warmed gently to suit the occasion.

Sweet Sakes and Aperitifs

Zenkuro (All Black) Queenstown 375ml $39.00

"White Cloud" Nigori Junmai Sake 750ml $75.00

Crafted by lightly filtering the fermented moromi (mash) a number of times to leave behind just enough lees in the sake to maintain its original white colour and slight sweetness. Bottled fresh in small batches, our Nigori is silky smooth, and goes particularly well with spicier and sweeter dishes and snacks. Likes to be enjoyed cool.

Gekkeikan Nigori Sake 300ml $28.00

A rough-filtered sake that has a milky, cloudy appearance due to the presence of rice sediment. It offers a creamy and rather sweet palette, with a tropical fruit and honey flavours dominating. A perfect match with our Tempura Bananas for dessert. This is a unique and uncommon style of sake well worth trying.

Ozeki Hana-Awaka 300ml $17.00

A sweet and lightly effervescent sake that is a great way to start or finish your night.

Spirits

Drink to the point of hilarity.

St Thomas Aquinas (1225 –1274)

Vodka

A clear sipirit that can be distilled from a variety of grains or potatoes. Consisting primarily of water and ethanol, vodka is generally considered to have "no taste" – despite this, different vodkas should be used differently to highlight underlying textures and nuances.

Scotch whisky, often simply called Scotch, is malt whisky or grain whisky made in Scotland. Scotch whisky must be made in a manner specified by law.

All Scotch whisky was originally made from malted barley. Commercial distilleries began introducing whisky made from wheat and rye in the late 18th century. Scotch whisky is divided into five distinct categories: single malt Scotch whisky, single grain Scotch whisky, blended malt Scotch whisky (formerly called "vatted malt" or "pure malt"), blended grain Scotch whisky, and blended Scotch whisky.

All Scotch whisky must be aged in oak barrels for at least three years. Any age statement on a bottle of Scotch whisky, expressed in numerical form, must reflect the age of the youngest whisky used to produce that product. A whisky with an age statement is known as guaranteed-age whisky. The first written mention of Scotch whisky is in the Exchequer Rolls of Scotland, 1495. A friar named John Cor was the distiller at Lindores Abbey in the Kingdom of Fife.

Many Scotch whisky drinkers will refer to a unit for drinking as a dram.

A close-up photograph of a tall, elegant glass filled with a dark, reddish-brown liquid, likely an aperitif. A large, clear ice cube is partially submerged in the liquid. A sprig of green herb, possibly rosemary, is tucked behind the glass. The glass sits on a white, intricately patterned lace tablecloth. Several dark, round objects, possibly olives, are scattered on the lace to the right of the glass. The lighting is soft, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.
